A Writing Workshop for Graduate Students: Organizing Your Thesis/Dissertation

Dr. Bitchener will explain how the different parts of a thesis/dissertation function and how an understanding of functions informs both the content and structure of the sections. He will explain how to use genre analysis in any discipline to clarify expectations and illustrate with examples from a well-crafted thesis in Applied Linguistics.

When: Thursday, April 9, 2009
Time: 3:10-4:30
Location: 396 Voorhies

For further information contact Dana R. Ferris (drferris@ucdavis.edu)