The Department of Spanish and Portuguese proudly presents

“Identidad cultural versus identidades nacionales en la poesía postcolonial del Caribe hispánico”

Monday, October 18, 2010
4:10 pm
53A Olson Hall

Dra. Graciela Maglia Vercesi
Directora Maestría en Literatura
Pontificia Universidad Javeriana (Bogotá, Colombia)

This talk will be conducted in Spanish.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:
Graciela Magila received her doctorate in Literature from the Sorbonne Paris IV, with previous study (DEA) at Université Paul Valéry in Montpellier, and an MA in Hispanic Literature and Linguistics at the Instituto Caro y Cuervo (Colombia), with additional study at the Universidad Nacional del Sur de Argentina. She is currently Director of the MA in Literature at the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana in Bogotá, and recently served as Special Advisor to the Cultural Ministry during the Year of Afrocolombianity (2009).

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Contact Prof. Robert McKee Irwin at rmirwin@ucdavis.edu or visit the website at http://spanish.ucdavis.edu.