A Public Lecture By
Moulay Hicham Ben Abdallah
Consulting Professor, Stanford University

Wednesday February 6th, 2013
Reception: 6pm, Lecture: 7pm
UC Davis Conference Center Ballroom A

Prince Moulay Hicham Ben Abdallah is the grandson of the late King Mohammad V, founder of the modern state of Morocco. Moulay Hicham is an outspoken advocate for political and economic reform in Morocco and the Arab world and has written widely on that topic. A graduate of Princeton and Stanford, he is currently Consulting Professor at the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies at Stanford.

Sponsorship

This lecture series was made possible through the generous donations to the Middle East/South Asia Studies Program by Faris Saeed. This Lecture Series launches the development of Arab Studies within the Middle East/South Asia Studies Program.

For More Information Contact the ME/SA Studies Office at mesastaff@ucdavis.edu or call (530)-754-4926.