The Future of Holocaust Literature

Dr. Ruth Klüger

Tuesday, February 18
4:30pm-6:30pm
Art Annex Room 107

Ruth Klüger is Professor Emerita of German Studies at the University of California, Irvine and a Holocaust survivor. She is the author of the bestseller weiter leben: Eine Jugend (Still Alive: A Holocaust Girlhood Remembered) which chronicles her childhood in Austria under Nazi occupation and her eventual imprisonment in various concentration camps. She is also an expert on German literature and has written numerous works about the topic, including Katastrophen, Über die deutsche Literatur, and Frauen lesen anders.

Inaugural lecture of the TEAL Distinguished Speaker Series for Foreign Languages, Literatures and Cultures. The series is funded by the Alan Templeton Endowment for the Arts and Letters (TEAL) at UC Davis in support of intellectual visions and academic activities in the departments of foreign languages, literatures and cultures located in Sproul Hall.