American Studies presents,
on Nov. 13th, 4-6pm in 3201 Hart Hall:

Double Meanings:
Conjoined Twins and the Ethics of Representation
w/Dr. Ellen Samuels

A Short Bio:

Ellen Samuels is Associate Professor of Gender & Women’s Studies and English at the University of Wisconsin at Madison and the author of Fantasies of Identification: Disability, Gender, Race (NYU Press, 2014). Her critical work has appeared in numerous journals and anthologies, including Signs: Journal of Women in Culture and Society, Feminist Disability Studies, GLQ, Amerasia, and MELUS, and was awarded the Catherine Stimpson Prize for Outstanding Feminist Scholarship in 2011. She is currently working on a new book, Double Meanings: Representing Conjoined Twins.