Careers Beyond Academia for History PhDs

Thursdays in 273 SSH

October 30th through November 20th

Join us for a brown bag series on careers and jobs outside of academia intended just for History PhD students. Guest speakers, including former UCD History graduate students, will discuss how you can parlay your skills into other fields.

October 30th, 1:00 to 2:00 – Introduction to Careers Outside of Academia
Gwynn Benner from the Internship and Career Center will be speaking broadly about careers for History PhD students beyond academia as well as some of the services the ICC offers. Gwynn serves as the coordinator for graduate student and postdoctoral career services.

November 6th, 12:00 to 1:30 – Guest Speaker: Luci Petlack
Luci graduated in 2013 and now works as a fashion and lifestyle blogger. Luci will be sharing her graduate school and post-graduation story, as well as what she’s taken from graduate school with her into her non-academic career/life.

November 13th, 1:00-2:00 – Guest Speaker: Scott Miltenberger
Scott graduated in 2006 and works as a senior historian at JRP Historical Consulting, LLC in Davis, CA. He primarily focuses on matters concerning surface and ground water rights.

November 20th, 2:00-3:00 – Guest Speaker: Shennan Hutton
Shennan graduated in 2006 and is currently serving as a lecturer for the History Department. Shennan will be discussing her career since graduating and how you can parlay the skills you acquire as a PhD student into different jobs.
