

David Ohannessian and the Armenian Ceramics of Jerusalem: How War, Forced Migration, and Resilience Led to the Creation of Iconic Art
Lecture by Sato Moughalian

Thursday, January 30, from 7-9 pm

International House Davis, 10 College Park, Davis

Brought to you by UC Davis Human Rights, the Art History and Jewish Studies Departments.

Join us to hear the story of David Ohannessian, the renowned ceramicist who founded the art of Armenian pottery in Jerusalem, where his work and that of his followers is now celebrated as a local treasure. Moughalian, Ohannessian's granddaughter, weaves together family memoir, art history, and biography in this fascinating lecture. The book was longlisted by the PEN America Literary Awards for the 2020 PEN/Jacqueline Bograd Weld Award for Biography. Copies will be available for sale.
