

Soul Calligraphy | Joel Pickford

Fresno Reads Opening Ceremony | Jill B. Potter

United Skates | Dyana Winkler & Tina Brown

California Humanities Grants Workshop

California Humanities invites you to attend a free information session about funding opportunities for humanities programming.

Thursday, September 26, 2019

10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Sacramento Public Library – South Natomas Branch
2901 Truxel Road, Sacramento 95833
Meeting Room

Program staff will give an overview of our current grant programs:

- Humanities for All provides grants for locally-initiated public humanities projects across the state.
- California Documentary Project funds the documentation of California in all its complexity through film, podcasts, radio, and digital media projects.

Attendees will have the opportunity to network with other attendees and ask questions of California Humanities staff.

Please bring a brown bag lunch if you wish; beverages and snacks will be provided.

Seats are limited. Click here to reserve your seat.

Please contact Outreach and Advocacy Manager John Nguyen-Yap at jnguyenyap@calhum.org if you have questions in advance of the meeting.

We hope you can join us!

California Humanities is an independent non-profit organization and state partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities. For over 40 years, we have provided grants and developed programs that provide opportunities for Californians to experience the humanities. For more information, visit www.calhum.org.

A STATE OF OPEN MIND